HB 1395-S by House Committee on Local Government & Housing (originally sponsored by Representatives Eickmeyer, Buck, Sump, Doumit, Kessler, Jackley, Van Luven, Haigh, Dunn, Murray, Edwards, Veloria, Romero, Hatfield, Pennington, Hunt, Ruderman, Linville, O'Brien, Conway and Santos)

Encouraging retention and enhancement of the job base in rural counties.

(DIGEST OF PROPOSED 1ST SUBSTITUTE)

Finds that in defining its rural element under RCW 36.70A.070(5), a county should foster land use patterns and develop a local vision of rural character that will: Help preserve rural-based economies and traditional rural lifestyles; encourage the economic prosperity of rural residents; foster opportunities for small-scale, rural-based employment and self-employment; permit the operation of rural-based agricultural, commercial, recreational, and tourist businesses that are consistent with existing and planned land use patterns; be compatible with the use of the land by wildlife and for fish and wildlife habitat; foster the private stewardship of the land and preservation of open space; and enhance the rural sense of community and quality of life.

Authorizing the department of ecology to enter into agreements to allocate Columbia basin project waters.

Authorizes the department of ecology to enter into agreements with the United States for the allocation of Columbia basin project waters that exist in underground storage either intentionally or incidentally to the irrigation of the Columbia basin project. Such agreements shall be consistent with authorized project purposes, federal and state reclamation laws, and repayment contract obligations of the United States pertaining to the Columbia basin project.

Allowing private school students and students receiving home-based education to take the Washington assessments of student learning at district expense.

Authorizes private school students and students receiving home-based education to take the Washington assessments of student learning at district expense.

-- 2002 REGULAR SESSION --

Jan 31 First reading, referred to Education.

HB 2878 by Representatives Reardon, Morris, Morell, Armstrong and Buck

Studying the availability of construction aggregates used in transportation projects.

Recognizes that as the state embarks on an aggressive twenty-year transportation plan to relieve severe traffic congestion, increase freight mobility, increase the state's ability to become more regionally competitive, attract new businesses, and contribute to our statewide economic future, it is necessary to ensure the availability of construction aggregates used in transportation.

Recognizes that these mineral resources of regional significance are fundamentally necessary, vital, and essential to the construction, maintenance, and repair of the transportation infrastructure of Washington state.

-- 2002 REGULAR SESSION --

Jan 31 First reading, referred to Transportation.

HB 2879 by Representatives Hurst, Lisk, Mulliken, Woods, Buck, Kirby, Simpson, Barlean, Fromhold, Edwards, Haigh, Morris, Kessler, Jackley, O'Brien, Sullivan, Lovick, Berkey, Pflug, Ballasiotes, Campbell, Esser, Alexander, Chase and Conway; by request of Governor Locke and Attorney General

Providing penalties and remedies for terrorism offenses.

Finds that the events of September 11, 2001, have focused our nation's attention on the importance of preparedness in preventing, investigating, and prosecuting acts of terrorism against its citizens.

Finds that, to be effective, this effort requires a partnership among the federal, state, and local governments. In furtherance of this partnership, it is the legislature's intent to strengthen the laws of the state of Washington to better protect the health and safety of Washington state and its residents from acts of terrorism.

Declares an intent that this act be interpreted to provide the greatest measure of protection and safety for the people of this state and to preserve and protect their constitutional rights, including the right to petition their governments and to exercise their rights under the First Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Jan 31 First reading, referred to Environment, Energy & Water.

SB 6745 by Senators Haugen, Benton, Keiser, B. Sheldon, Poulsen, Winsley, Zarelli, Johnson, Gardner, Hewitt, Prentice, Finkbeiner, Horn, Regala, Rasmussen, Honeyford and Kline

Implementing a web-based electronic death certificate registration system.

Requires the department and all local registrars in cities and counties to charge a surcharge of one dollar for each fee imposed for certified copies of records and for copies or information provided for research, statistical, or administrative purposes, or for a search of the files or records when no copy is made.

Provides that all the revenue generated through this surcharge must be transmitted to the state treasurer on or before the first day of January, April, July, and October. The state treasurer must distribute these funds to the department of health's center for health statistics, for the sole purpose of implementing a web-based electronic death certificate registration system. The surcharge imposed under this provision expires July 1, 2006.

-- 2002 REGULAR SESSION --

Jan 31 First reading, referred to State & Local Government.

SB 6746 by Senators Stevens, T. Sheldon, Finkbeiner, Rossi, Snyder, McCaslin and Hargrove

Allowing use permits for telecommunications facilities on state lands.

Finds that advanced telecommunications services are essential to our modern, information society.

Finds that telecommunications companies, when constructing and upgrading the networks that provide these services, must cross state lands to reach all state residents and that, for the benefit of these residents, the state should permit such crossings in a nondiscriminatory, economic, and timely manner.

-- 2002 REGULAR SESSION --

Jan 31 First reading, referred to Economic Development & Telecommunications.

SB 6747 by Senators Prentice, Gardner, Keiser and Kline

Protecting against abusive mortgage lending practices.

Finds that abusive mortgage lending has become an increasing problem in this state, exacerbating the loss of equity in homes and causing the number of foreclosures to increase in recent years. One of the most common forms of abusive lending is the making of loans that are equity-based, rather than income-based.

Finds that the financing of points and fees in these loans provides immediate income to the originator and encourages lenders to repeatedly refinance home loans.

Finds that as competition and self-regulation have not eliminated the abusive terms from home-secured loans, the consumer protection provisions of this act are necessary to encourage lending at reasonable rates with reasonable terms.

-- 2002 REGULAR SESSION --

Jan 31 First reading, referred to Labor, Commerce & Financial Institutions.

SB 6748 by Senators Kline, Oke, Swecker and Haugen

Revising vehicle impound and transfer procedures.

Directs the Washington state patrol and local law enforcement agencies to convene a task force to consider the advantages and disadvantages of law enforcement agencies immediately transmitting, electronically or by facsimile, the impound authorization form to the impounding tow operator. The task force shall report its findings and recommendations to the house of representatives and senate transportation committees by January 1, 2003.

Requires the department of licensing to study the feasibility of requiring the seller of a vehicle to remove the vehicle's license plates at the time of the sale. The department shall specifically examine the fiscal impact of implementing this proposal, the experiences of other states, and the advantages and disadvantages of this proposal. The department shall report its findings and recommendations to the house of representatives and senate transportation committees by January 1, 2003.
